

TROOP 266 WEBSITE PRIVACY POLICY

This website is operated by Boy Scout Troop 266. The main goal of this site is to provide a communication medium for the Troop's member scouts, prospective scouts, parents, troop leaders, volunteers, and donors.

The website may use interactive forms to collect personal information and BSA-oriented information. This information may be released to other local Scout councils and/or to the National Council for purposes of providing information for Scouting programs (events, unit registration, chartering and rechartering, camp registration, merit badge registration, etc.). The information may also be used for verification purposes, registration, historical data purposes, and trend-analyses. Children 12 and under are not permitted to and should not enter data via any of the site's interactive applications. Parents and guardians of children ages 12 and under should enter the data for any such children.

While we take reasonable precautions to protect the privacy of information collected, its security is not guaranteed. The Troop will not solicit or collect detailed information such as addresses and telephone numbers, without the consent of a parent or guardian.

Troop 266 does not and will not condone a child's participation in any online activity or the child's disclosure of more personal information than is necessary to participate in that activity.

This site does not use online chat or message board communication per recommended guidelines from the Boy Scouts of America.

Written parental consent is required before youth members may be granted access to any editors-only area. Only registered Troop members are permitted access to proprietary information.

Children's full names with a photo of the child should not appear on this site. If you find a child's full name with a photo of the child is accidentally placed on a page on this site, please report the error to the current Scoutmaster.

You are encouraged to speak with your child about using the Internet. Keeping their personal information private, regardless of what site they are visiting, is important and should be discussed with them directly.

You may confirm or correct the information we have collected about you or your child at any time by contacting the current Scoutmaster.

This website provides links to websites that are not under the control of Troop 266. If you visit one of these sites, you should review its privacy policy and terms of use. We are not responsible for the actions or policies of other companies' and organizations' websites.

If you have any questions about this privacy policy or any practices used on this site, please feel free to contact the current Scoutmaster by email or in writing at:
